

The 2010 International Digital Emmy® Awards

Digital Presentation Guidelines

Please remember that jurors are evaluating your program based solely on your presentation and project summary. The following criteria will provide guidelines for your presentation:

Your presentation should include:

- Descriptions and demonstrations/clips of enhanced features
- Plot line of story
- Information about the different delivering platforms (including the broadcast television program, if applicable), how the program can be accessed on each and how they are related
- Voice-over narration
- Creative and technical objectives

Your presentation should avoid:

- Promotional material and marketing statistics (including total number of viewers or website hits)
- Long, uninterrupted clips from program
- Extensive plot explanations
- Full webisode(s)
- A length of under 00:03:00 or over 00:07:00
- Solely a walk-through of website

Digital Presentation Examples

Please click on the below links for viewing:

- Scorched (2009 Winner, Digital Program: Fiction)
Broadcast television program with enhanced features
- Huella Latente (2009 Nominee, Digital Program: Non-Fiction)
Broadcast television program with enhanced features
- Pietshow (2009 Nominee, Digital Program: Fiction)
Webisode series