BOARD & MEMBERS ACTIVITIES

Connect at events worldwide and online

The International Academy of Television Arts & Sciences organizes a number of high-level business, networking and social events for Members throughout the world and online.

Board & Members Meetings take place 3 to 4 times a year and offer Members the opportunity to connect with their international peers from the world's leading television companies.

Members also have access to M+ Lounge and M+ Virtual Lounge, spaces for Members and their guests to connect with old friends or make new ones. M+ Lounge will be open wherever the Academy has a presence at markets throughout the world. M+ Virtual Lounge allows Members to join from anywhere in the world and even hear from a guest speaker or two.

SHOWCASE AND INSPIRE

Host a Semi-Final Round of Judging Event

Every summer, from June to September, the Academy travels to over 25 judging sites for Semi-Final Judging events. These events are hosted by Academy Members and determine the International Emmy Award Nominees. Semi-Final rounds are not only a crucial step in the judging process, but also a great networking opportunity for the Host and the Jurors invited to participate in the competition. Depending on the Host, events range from small one day events to large gatherings over two days with press conferences, cocktails and cultural visits added on to the judging panels.

ACCESS NEW WORLDS

Explore global television

Academy Day is a high-level, by-invitation only 4 day event designed to shine a spotlight on the culture and media industry of a specific region and foster a better understanding of regional business models and cultural institutions to help facilitate cross border collaboration.

It is a customized event hosted by an Academy Partner which offers Members an exclusive opportunity to take a deep-dive into the television industry of a specific region, and network with the leading executives and officials of that region. Members and their guests attend a combination of industry specific panels and key-notes, and visit cultural landmarks.

Previous Academy Days have taken place in Beijing, Rio de Janeiro, Jerusalem, Hong Kong & Shenzhen, and Mexico City.

YOUR BUSINESS, Your World

International Emmy®Awards Gala and International Emmy® World Television Festival

Each year, the leading television producers from around the world showcase their programming and compete to be recognized at the prestigious International Emmy® Awards, traditionally held in New York City with around one thousand international broadcasting, production and distribution executives convening to celebrate the best in global television. The International Academy presents 2 Special Awards, as well as Emmys across 11 categories at this ceremony (Kids and News Emmys are presented at separate ceremonies).

Over 600 television professionals from over 60 countries gather together annually in New York City for the International Emmy® World Television Festival. Traditionally the Festival takes place the weekend before the International Emmy® Awards and is the only place where one can watch all the nominated programs, meet the creators, and attend a variety of special events with key members of the global television community. The Festival is an invite-only event and open to all International Academy Members.
