

Sir Peter Ustinov Television Scriptwriting Award

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I submit a new version of a script that I've already submitted in the past?

Eligibility of revised scripts varies on a case-by-case basis – please contact foundation@iemmys.tv with a description of the types of changes that were made.

Is there an application/entry fee?

No, there's no fee to enter the Ustinov Award competition.

My script wasn't originally in English, but the version that I plan to submit is a translation – is it still eligible?

Yes, the script will be eligible as long as the submitted version is in English.

What genres of program are eligible for the award?

Entries must be scripts that fall into the Drama category (Drama Series: A dramatic production in which theme, storyline, and main characters are presented under the same title.)
