

2022 JCS INTERNATIONAL YOUNG CREATIVES AWARD FINALISTS

The JCS International Young Creatives Award Finalists listed here were selected through the First Round, Online Public Voting which took place September 15-22, 2022. The twenty (20) videos with the most votes on the judging portal, along with three videos selected by the Academy, moved on to the Final Round of Judging, from which three winners were chosen.

The JCS International Young Creatives Award is designed to discover, recognize and foster young talent from around the world while creating a global conversation around Peace. The 2022 theme for the competition sponsored by JCS International, a Ronald S. Lauder company is:

STAND-UP FOR PEACE!

A City of Peace, Leroy Miller, Australia
Arise, Loyd Doron, Philippines
Beautiful Blind, Nikhilsai Vonguri, India
Behind Closed Doors, Maria Sofia Africa, Philippines
Brain Wash, Bruno Tanya, Kenya
Cycling for Peace, Abinash Kamali, Nepal
Dividing Lines, Ahmed Yinusa, Nigeria
Emotionally Immature Parents, Sushant Patil, India
Happy Days, Cesylia Oketch, Kenya
I Am Peace, Kimberly Tayong, Philippines
In Search of Peace, Romardo Lyons, Jamaica
Left in Peace, Gabriela Lima, Brazil
Let's Love the World to Peace, Adeboye Malumi, Nigeria
Martyrs of Peace, Alina Rizwan, Pakistan
My Message to the World, Bima British Junior, Indonesia
Stood Up., Kuldeep Kumar, Pakistan
The Last Loaf of Bread, Edward Nammour, Lebanon
The Serenity, Arwen Alau Rusdiansah, Malaysia
The Silent Wars, Jamie Jimenez Cerrero, Philippines
This is War., Shiva Subramanian, India
What If, Karla Bonfá, Brazil
Within, Tushar Nongthombam, India
Zero Hunger, Zakaria Lahnine, Morocco